

LOTZ OF POTZ HYDRO

FREE SHIPPING POLICY

1. Where possible we like giving our customers free shipping. Most of our products qualify for free shipping but there are exceptions.

Products we don't ship at all

2. Some products we just don't ship at all because of past poor experiences with these large, bulky, overly fragile or otherwise difficult shipments. These include items like 40KG bags of coco medium. Some products never seem to arrive intact and others are classed as dangerous goods and are not collected by couriers.

Products with limited free shipping

3. Some products are not worth shipping alone. For example a single cable tie. On these items we can still ship an order for free if another qualifying product is purchased in the same order. Qualifying products are any other product with free shipping.
4. Even if there is a limited shipping product alone, there is still the option of shipping by Aramex courier. Our website links through to get an instant price for shipping orders.

Products with free shipping

5. Most products are available with free shipping. However some places we can't ship things to for free because of shipping excesses. So for example if the shipping address is in the bush at Supper Cove in Fiordland, we may not be able to provide free shipping. A list of post codes that we currently don't offer free shipping to is included at the end of this document.
6. If we don't offer free shipping to the shipping address, the team at Aramex will calculate an instant price for the order if they ship to that address.

How works?

7. When browsing products, each one has shipping details included that display the shipping status even before a product is added to the cart.
